

Caldicott Guardian

The Caldicott Guardian is the person, with overall responsibility for protecting the confidentiality of personally identifiable data (PID). The Caldicott Guardian plays a key role in ensuring that the organisations and partner organisations abide by the highest level of standards of handling PID.

They are responsible for ensuring that their organisations adheres to the Caldicott Principles. It is the responsibility of the Caldicott Guardian to feedback any IG issues to the appropriate senior management board.

